If you are interested in filing for a State Office, you should review candidate filing instructions on the Maryland State Board of Elections website at elections.maryland.gov.

If you are interested in filing for a Local Office, you should review candidate filing instructions on the Carroll County Board of Elections website at <https://elections.carrollcountymd.gov/CandidateInfo.aspx>. Due to COVID-19, appointments will be required and all people who wish to file for office must appear in-person for the appointment. You may not be accompanied by anyone unless approved by the Board of Elections Office. Visit the Carroll County link above to review requirements for each local office and for instructions to make an appointment.

Important information for people interested in filing for County Commissioner:

The census occurs every 10 years and redistricting will take place. In late 2021, state and local officials will review the district lines. In the 2022 legislative session, the Maryland General Assembly will review legislation to enact the redistricting proposals which may include changes to the County Commissioner boundaries. The deadline for enacting redistricting proposals into law and the deadline for candidate filings will be close to one another in 2022. Please be aware that the Congressional, Legislative or Commissioner district that you filed for could change because of the actions taken during the redistricting process. If the Commissioner district that you already filed for changes, you will be notified.

Important information for all people interested in filing for an elected office:

If you file as a candidate in 2021, you will be required to complete a financial disclosure when you file now and again by March 4, 2022. Please be sure to follow all guidelines and laws of Maryland Candidacy and Campaign Finance.
